8th August 1920. The deceased has left behind his wife - the petitioner Zainab Bee & a daughter claiming the pension. The widow Zainab Bee has appeared before the Amildar, Bangalore & and was identified as the widow of the deceased pensioner by one Mahomed Khan a retired Shrishtadar.

Though the pension was a life grant, it was continued to the family for four generations - in full.

The Dy: Commr is of opinion that the pension may be continued to the petitioner, on her producing an heirship certificate from a competent Court.

It is not usual to refer such cases to Law Courts for the identification of the claimants for these political pensions - Perhaps the Dt. may be asked to direct the petitioner to appear before him with some respectable persons to identify her with necessary records.

Sir,

With reference to your letters No.Fl.7100/S&A 122-23-2 dated 27th June 1924 and Fl.1935/S.A.122-23-4 dated 1st October 1924 forwarding for report the petitions of Zainab Bibi praying for the continuance of the Political pension drawn by her late husband Gulam Mohideen Khan, I have the honour to state as follows:-

The pension in question is a Political one of Rs.145-13-4 per month granted for life in the first instance to Khane Jahan Khan, an Officer high in the service of Tippoo Sultan. After his death, the pension descended successively to his son Gulam Mahomed Khan, Grand son of Galib Ali Khan.and great grandson Gulam Mahomed Khan (Vide Commissioner's Official Memorandum No. 11 dated 16th April 1868). The last pensioner Gulam Mahamed Khan died on 8th August 1920 and thereafter his widow Zainab bibi applied for the continuance of the said pension. She produced copies of certain documents through her son-in-law.

One Yasimkhan put in a petition objecting to the continuance of the pension on the ground that the deceased's wife Zainab bibi and her daughter Mohadeenbi were insane, that the latter was unmarried and that Hussain Alikhan not connected in any way with the deceased Gulam Mahomed Khan, was fraudulently enjoying the properties belonging to the deceased. Who this Yasim Khan was, could not be traced and as Zainab bibi also did not appear in person and as her whereabouts were not known at the time the question was dropped (Vide your letter No.Fl 2926/S & A 108-20 dated 4th January 1923.

Zainab bibi has now come forward claiming the award of the said pension in her name. She appeared before the Amildar and was identified as the widow of the said Gulam Mahomed Khan by one Mahomed Khan, a retired Sheristedar.

No other claimants beyond the petitioner and her daughter have come forward to claim the pension. The pension in question was originally granted for life but was subsequently allowed to continue to the family for four generations.

In view of the circumstances explained above and the inordinate delay in preferring the present claim it is very desirable that a proper identification of the claimant should be established in a competent court and I am therefore of the opinion that the pension may be gontinued to the petitioner on her producing an heirship certificate.

The entire vernacular records are forwarded herewith.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

For Deputy Commissioner,

Bangalore District.

The DEWAN of Mysore,

Sir,

I beg to be excused for intruding upon your leisure to approach you in a small matter with the full consciousness that you will be pleased to grant me the favour I seek at your generous hands.

I believe that time has come when it would be mistaken faith and delicacy to conceal any longer from you the position to which I am unerringly drifting.

My husband Gulam Ahmed Khan, departed this life, some years ago. He was a recepient of a perpetual pension, and this passed from generation to generation and helped to contribute not only to our maintenance but to hold up our heads among our compeers. Divested as I am of this aid from a very long period, I find it very hard to push through life sucessfully.

I had appeared before the Amildar, Bangalore Taluk, Bangalore, agreably to your kind orders, on the 6th February last when my statement was recorded in the presence of two public witnesses who subscribed to my identity.

I beg of you to dispose of this matter as early as circumstances allow, and relieve my widowed heart of the gloom environing me for which I shall ever remain greatful.

I beg to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient
